AN UNFAIR CRITICISM.

The Oshkosh Times, a democratic paper, loses its reason when it talks about the Bennett law. In a late issue it says:

The Times views with extreme disgust the course of several democratic papers of the state in following the lead of the Milwaukee Sentinel on the Bennett law. The Sentinel has dispensed much taffy to those papers on account of the position they have taken, and they have swallowed the bait as though it were the first mouthful in many a long day. The papers nor the people should be mistaken about this Bennett law. It was a republican mistake and the Sentinel is attempting to defend it. It is based upon the exception, and not the rule. The teaching of German in the parochial schools has in no way interferred with our public school system. The Catholic and Lutheran schools are as much private institutions as Beloit or Racine colleges. This Bennett law proposes to dictate to them how they shall be managed. The right of a society, religious or otherwise, to establish a place of learning and govern it as it sees fit, is attacked by this Bennett law. Let the school system of Oshkosh be examined. There are several ward and parochial schools here, yet no word of complaint has been heard. Why, then, this Bennett law? It was made by a country schoolmaster and therefore is without sense or reason. The democratic journals should examine it carefully before indorsing it and tailing up the Sentinel.

It looks as if the editor of the Oshkosh Times does not know what the provisions of the Bennett law are. The law does not propose to dictate the management of parochial schools in such a way as to interfere with their usefulness. It does not interfere with the rights of the teachers or the schools so far as religion is concerned. It does not prevent the teaching of German or any other language in any of the parochial schools of Wisconsin. It simply provides that some of the common branches shall be taught in English. Why? For the very righteous reason that the branches as taught shall be of special benefit to the German girls and boys. It will make them more intelligent citizens, give them a better chance in the business world, and place them fully abreast with American children.

Is such a law as this without sense or reason?

SUPERINTENDENT HEAD.

The state board of supervision which has been holding meetings at the Plankinton house in Milwaukee this week, has elected Dr. Louis R. Head, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane at Mendota, to succeed Dr Buckmaster, who resigns to engage in business in Chicago. Dr. Head was born at Albion, Dane county, some 35 years ago, and was graduated from the state university in 1880, having taken a classical course, and was the class valedictorian. He afterwards graduated from Rush medical college, and was again the valedictorian of the class, and then took a thorough course at the college of physicians and surgeons in New York city. He then began private practice at Edgerton, and three years ago was called to the position of first assistant physician in the Kankakee hospital, Illinois, one of the largest in all the west. While in this position he was paid a higher salary than was ever before paid to a first assistant, the value of his services demanding that this honor should be conferred upon him. When the stockholders of Oakwood retreat at Lake Geneva were casting about for a superintendent, they made a call on Dr. Head and he accepted the position a year and a half ago. Dr. Head is one of the best scholars in the medical profession in this state. For a young man his medical training has been exceedingly thorough, and beside all that, he is an accomplished gentleman, a close student, and his gives promise of a life of rare usefulness in his profession.

The censure which the Madison Democrat passes upon President Harrison for having removed Colonel Krez from the office of collector of this port would have greater significance if that paper had, in a similar manner, condemned Mr. Cleveland when he removed Colonel Krez's predecessor, Mr. Hall. Mr. Cleveland was certainly as strongly pledged not to remove officials holding such offices as is Mr. Harrison. The latter has waited considerably longer before making the change than Mr. Cleveland did. Colonel Krez has certainly not been a more faithful and competent officer than Mr. Hall; and he has done, what Mr. Hall did not do, take an active part in party politics. Last fall Colonel Krez left his office and took the stump, making political speeches to show that it would be a calamity to elect Mr. Harrison to the presidency, and possibly Mr. Harrison has concluded, in order that Colonel Krez might not feel like a false prophet, that he should experience the calamity he predicted.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Our democratic friends have a queer way of dishing up their criticisms of President Harrison. It is the George William Curtis style. It was all right for Cleveland to remove a competent republican to make room for a democrat who had been long wanting an office. It is machine politics of the worst kind for Harrison to remove a democratic worker like Colonel Krez, to make room for an old soldier and a royal good man like Colonel Watrous. Why doesn't the Madison Democrat come out squarely in endorsing practical politics in a president—the giving of important offices to able and trustworthy friends of the administration? If Colonel Krez left his office to help Cleveland out of the political mire in which he was placed, was Harrison under any obligation politically, or from a point of view taken from a civil service platform, to keep the democratic collector in office? Not much. Harrison did well in giving Colonel Krez to understand that so far as he himself was personally concerned he was not a false prophet. But the change hardly came early enough.

In spite of a denial from the capital of North Dakota, it is positive that in sections of both Dakotas there is appalling destitution among the farmers. For two years the crops in certain belts have failed to such a degree that in many cases no attempt was made to harvest them. There are nearly 20,000 families without means to obtain food and fuel for the coming winter, and reports from leading towns in the new states show that the towns-people, who like the farmers, depend on the crops, are not in condition to meet the demand on their charity.—Sentinel.

There is more truth than a good many are willing to admit in the statement that in both the Dakotas there is much suffering among the farmers. Of course, the destitution is not general, but in some belts the sufferings command the deepest sympathy. The writer of this has in mind two families that after several years of hard work and many privations, have abandoned their homes, leaving them to the mortgagee, and returned to the older states bankrupted in property as well as downcast completely in spirit. Of course this thing will not always last in either of the Dakotas. The past two years have been especially severe in these states, and there are hopes of better times.

"The Philadelphia church which recently decided to have thirty candidates preach in succession, and then call the best of the lot, is reported to be having a great deal more fun than the candidates. The men who preached first fear that their good points will be entirely forgotten before the match is ended, and they think they ought to have a little extra show. The spectacle of thirty clerical contestants preaching to a finish, with a church as a stake, is somewhat unusual." To what a singular pass this calling of ministers has come. In some places it is a good deal like a horse race—hardly anything better.

Governor Warren's report of the affairs of Wyoming territory shows the same amazing progress there which has characterized the development of her northwestern sisters. The population has increased from 9,000 in 1870 to 100,000, and the assessed valuation of property from $7,000,000 to $32,000,000. If Wyoming keeps on growing, she will soon have a right to knock at the door of the Union for admission.

According to the report of the third auditor of the treasury the number of pensioners on the rolls July 1, 1889, was 490,000, and there will probably be added 35,000 more by June 30, 1890. This addition will make the estimated number of pensioners at that date 525,000, thus giving for examination 2,100,000 vouchers, and requiring for their payment at least $100,000,000 annually.

A little item of interest from the New York Tribune: "Colonel "Bob" Ingersoll is to be congratulated upon his appearance as counsel for the Catholic church. Now, if he can only induce the church to act as counsel for him, something of a reciprocal reward may be realized."

The Australian ballot system worked well in Massachusett. But the other system in Ohio, Iowa, and some other states, worked badly. People in an off year, are frequently off on their voting.

It begins to look as if Judge Keyes would make some needed capital by stopping the proceedings against the hazers. The matter has gone on a long ways, and no good results.

Developing a Sudden Attachment.

An amusing incident was witnessed on State street yesterday. A young woman was walking slowly up the street, oblivious of anything or anybody but herself and a white poodle which she held by a bright red ribbon. The young woman carried a parasol with a long hooked handle at a slight angle over her shoulder. Suddenly she felt a violent jerk of the handle of her sunshade and she turned with an angry start to find she had "hooked" a handsome-looking young man, the handle of the parasol having caught in his upper coat pocket. Apologies were murmured, and while the man with the assistance of a friend recovered his equilibrium—and coat—the young woman, with face the color of the poodle's ribbon, passed quickly out of sight.

How a Sea Gull Was Drowned.

Some fishermen, while engaged near Belfast, Ireland, picked up a large sea gull which was approaching the boat, with wings outspread, floating on the water, but quite dead. The men were puzzled to account for the progress it made through the water, as it went faster than the boat; but as it came near it was found that wound securely round the body and under the wings was a string, which they discovered was attached to a large paper kite then flying above them at a considerable height. The kite had furnished the propelling power. The bird had evidently, while flying at Belfast, got entanged in the string of a boy's kite, had been unable to extricate itself, and, taking to the sea, had been drowned in its efforts to obtain freedom.

Force of Habit.

New minister to sexton—Well, John, how do you like my preaching, on the whole?

Sexton—Very well, sir—only I think you pound the desk too much.

New minister—Oh, that's force of habit, John, force of habit. You see, I've always used a stylographic pen.

STATE ELECTIONS

LARGE DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN AN "OFF YEAR."

Iowa Forsakes the Republican Column for Boies, Electing Him by 1,000 to 5,000 Majority.

Ohio Republicans Elect Their Ticket With the Probable Exception of Foraker.

The Empire State Democratic by 10,000 to 12,000--Pennsylvania Certainly Republican.

Virginia Strongly Democratic--The New Jersey Legislature Probably Republican.

One-Sided Contest in Mississippi--Latest Returns of the Results of Tuesday's Balloting.

Ten States held elections Tuesday. In five of them, Iowa, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Ohio, and Virginia, a Governor and other State officers were chosen; in New Jersey, a Governor and members of the Legislature; and in the other four, Maryland, Nebraska, New York, and Pennsylvansa, members of the Legislature and minor officers were voted for.

In Iowa there were three State tickets, Democratic, Republican, and Labor. The vote of the State last year was: Cleveland 179,877, Harrison 211,598, Streeter (Labor) 9,105, Fisk (Pro.) 3,550.

In Massachusetts there were also three tickets—Democratic, Republican, and Prohibition. Last year's vote was: Cleveland 151,955, Harrison 183,892, Fisk 8,701.

There was only one ticket in the field in Mississippi—the Democratic.

In New Jersey there were three tickets—Democratic, Republican, and Prohibition. The vote last year was: Cleveland, 151,493; Harrison. 144,344; Fisk, 7,904.

In Ohio there were four tickets—Democratic, Republican, Prohibition, and Union Labor. The vote of the State last year was: Cleveland, 396,455; Harrison, 416,064; Fisk, 24,856.

There were only two tickets in Virginia—Democratic and Republican. The vote last year was: Cleveland, 151,977; Harrison, 150,438.

Maryland elected only a Controller. There were Democratic, Republican and Prohibition tickets. Last year the State gave Cleveland 106,186, Harrison 99,986, and Fisk 4,757.

Nebraska elected a Supreme Court Judge and two Regents. There were Democratic and Republican tickets. Last year Cleveland received 80,552 votes, Harrison 108,425, and Fisk 9,429.

New York elected a Secretary of State, Treasurer, Controller, Attorney General, State Engineer, and Court of Appeals Judge. There were Democratic, Republican, Prohibition, and Greenback tickets. Members of both Houses of the Legislature were also chosen. The vote of New York for Governor last year was, Hill (Dem.), 650,486; Miller (Rep.), 6(31,292; Jones (Pro.), 30,215; Hall Socialist), 3,348; Democratic majority for Hill, 19,171.

The following are the latest reports received from the several States up to the hour of going to press:

IOWA DEMOCRATIC.

Republicans Concede the Election of Horace Boies as Governor.

Governor.....HORACE BOIES
Lieutenant Governor...SAMUEL L. BESTOW
Judge of Supreme Court (to fill vacancy and for full term).....
.....WILLIAM F. BRANNON
Railroad Commissioner....DAVID MORGAN
Superintendent Public Schools....
.....THOMAS M. IRISH

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 6.—The weather was clear and bracing Tuesday and the election proceeded quietly, with about an average vote.

The Republican State committee concedes the election of Boies by from 5,000 to 8,000 plurality. The committee claimed a victory for Hutchinson when the polls closed, but gradually trimmed down its estimates from 15,000 plurality as the returns came in until at last the result became so plain that they were forced to acknowledge their candidate beaten.

A little after midnight the Republican State committee gave up all hope and threw up the sponge.

Later returns show the election of the entire Democratic State ticket by a majority probably exceeding 10,000. Boies seems slightly ahead of the balance of the ticket.

Three hundred and eighty-seven precincts give Hutchison 43,925, Boies 53,-906, Smith 4,503, Morgan 43,229, Given 44,644, and Brennan 4,430. The net Democratic gain is 3,919. This rate of gain continued will make the State Democratic by 8,000.

Nothing is known about the Legislature. The Democrats have made some gains, notably in Polk, Muscatine, Boone, and Buchanan counties, but the Republicans have a majority on joint ballot without much doubt.

Returns will be slow in coming in on account of the late hour of closing the polls and the unusual amount of scratching done. Nearly every part of the State heard from continues to show Democratic gains. The city of Burlington gives 1,500 Democratic majority, and Des Moines county will raise it to 2,000, a clear gain of 800 over the vote of two years ago. Pottawattomie county reports a Democratic majority of 1,900, a gain of 700; Carroll, a Democratic majority of 700, a gain of 500 Democratic. The gain in the town of Cherokee is 156. Scott and Dubuque counties also show large gains.

Returns by Counties.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 6.—Boies, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has captured Dubuque county by a majority that is not less than 3,800 and may reach 4,000. He has run ahead of his ticket in the city over 1,500 votes. The vote in the city has been remarkably light.

Burlington—The election in Des Moines county resulted in a sweeping victory for Horace Boies, the Democratic nominee, who, from present indications, has a majority in the county of 2,000, a Democratic gain of 800 over the vote cast two years ago. The entire Democratic county ticket is elected.

Avoca—A conservative estimate of the Democratic majority on Governor in Pottawattomie county is 1,700, a Democratic gain over the election two years ago of 250. The legislative ticket will fall behind this estimate 200.

Carroll—The estimated Democratic majority of Carroll county is 1,000, a gain of 275.

Boone—The city of Boone gives Boies 219 majority. Seven precincts out of twenty in the county give a net Democratic gain of 210. Boone county will not give over 200 majority for Hutchison.

Davenport—Seven precincts in Scott County indicate a net Democratic gain on Governor of 600, or a majority for Boies of 3,800. The entire Democratic county ticket is elected.

Keokuk—Indications are that Boies will have 1,500 over Hutchison in Lee county, a Democratic gain of 113. The Democratic Senator and Representative are elected, also the entire county ticket.

Algona—Hutchison will carry Kossuth county by 300 majority, a Republican loss of 50. Part of the Democratic ticket has been elected.

Muscatine—The Democrats carry Muscatine county by about 400 and the city by 500, a Democratic gain of 100 in the county.

Council Bluffs—Scattering and very incomplete returns from Pottawattamie county show a light vote cast and slight Democratic gains over the vote of 1887. The probable majority of Boies over Hutchison is 800.

Oskaloosa—Indications are that Hutchison will carry Mahaska county by 500 majority, a Democratic gain of 400.

Sioux City—Scattering returns indicate that Boies has carried Woodbury county by 250 to 300 majority, a gain of about 300. Many Republicans scratched Hutchison. The Prohibition issue is the only issue which cut much of a figure here.

Marshalltown — Marshall county will give Hutchison 600 majority over Boies, a Democratic gain of 200. Marshalltown goes Democratic the first time in years, giving Boies 139 majority.

Ft. Dodge—Eight precincts out of twenty-four give Hutchison 947 and Boies 887. Indications are that Hutchison will carry Webster county by 100 majority, a Democratic gain of 400. Kinney, Republican Representative, is elected by a small majority.

OHIO.

Foraker Possibly Beaten—The Balance of the Republican Ticket Elected.

Governor.....JAMES E. CAMPBELL
Lieutenant-Governor.....E. V. LAMPSON
Judge of Supreme Court.....F. J. DICKMAN
Treasurer.....J. C. BROWN
Clerk of Supreme Court.....U. H. HESTER
Attorney-General.....D. K. WATSON
Member Board Public Works....WM. HAHN
School Commissioner.....JOHN HANCOCK

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Election day was blessed with unusually fine weather, clear and bright, with just enough chilliness in the temperature to make the air bracing. The voting was entirely free from any sort of disorder. Under the election law, no crowd about the polls was permitted, and the old habit of gathering in large numbers about the polling-places was entirely broken up.

At midnight Chairman Neal of the Democratic committee said: "Campbell has carried the State by at least 5,000 plurality, and the indications are that this will be increased to 10,000. My latest advices show that he has carried Hamilton county by at least 6,000. There is no doubt in my mind about the defeat of Gov. Foraker. The enormous gains in many parts of the State render his election impossible."

Republicans here generally concede the election of Campbell. It appears quite certain that the Democrats have elected their candidate for Governor; that the rest of the Republican State ticket is elected, and that the Legislature is very close on joint ballot. The result in this branch of the election may not be definitely known for several days.

From the first returns received up to a late hour the average Democratic gain by the head of the ticket has been about ten to the precinct. There are 2,404 precincts in the State. Foraker's majority two years ago was 23,000. With that vote the comparisons are made, and if the ratio of Democratic gains maintains throughout Mr. Campbell's election is sure.

In eighty-four precincts in Ohio outside of Cincinnati: Foraker, 10,828; Campbell, 9,286; Helwig, 533, a Democratic gain of 773.

Twelve precincts in Columbus show a net Democratic gain of 215 over 1887. Campbell's majority over Foraker is 280.

One hundred and fifty-nine voting places in Ohio outside of Cincinnati: Foraker, 21,604; Campbell, 19,224; Helwig, 1,305 The same places in 1887: Foraker, 21,056; Powell, 17,672; Sharp, 1,157.

Three hundred and forty-two voting places outside of Cincinnati: Foraker, 48,334; Campbell, 44,915; Helwig, 2,452. The same in 1887 gave Foraker, 47,318; Powell, 41,430; Sharp, 3,461.

Three hundred and sixty-four voting places in Ohio outside of Cincinnati show a Democratic gain of 2,679, and the same relative vote throughout the State will elect Campbell by 2,000.

Four hundred and forty-three voting places outside of Cincinnati show a Democratic gain of 3,929.

The Enquirer claims the election of Campbell by a slight majority, but concedes the election of the rest of the State ticket. As to the Legislature it is in doubt from lack of information from the close counties.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Keystone State Elects a Republican Treasurer.

State Treasurer.....HENRY K. BOYER

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 6.—The only State officer voted for in Pennsylvania Tuesday was State Treasurer. The candidates were Kenry K. Boyer (Rep.), Edward A. Bigler (Dem.), and James R. Johnson (Pro.) A light vote was cast. Very little interest was manifested, the election of Boyer by a decided majority being a foregone conclusion. Hart (Rep.), for State Treasurer in 1887 had a plurality of 47,245, and returns from twenty-seven counties, including Philadelphia, show a net Republican gain over the 1887 vote of about 25,000.

Following are the estimated pluralities in this State by counties for State Treasurer: Juniata county, Boyer (Rep.), 50 plurality; Blair county, Boyer, 1,350; Bameron county, Boyer, 100; Monroe county, Bigler, (Dem.), 1,650. Lehigh county, Bigler, 2,100; Snyder county, Boyer, 500, a Democratic gain of 205; Crawford county, Boyer, 2,000, a Republican gain of 533; Northampton county, Bigler, 2,800, a Republican gain of 513; Clarion county, Bigler, 800 plurality, a Republican gain of 169; Montour county, Bigler, 550; Pike county, Bigler, 550; Northumberland county, Bigler, 100, a Democratic gain of 269; Warren county, Boyer, 500, a Democratic gain of 392.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the inpurity which causes and promotes the disease, and effects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsa

Estimates from other counties are as follows: York county, Bigler (dem.), 2,000 plurality, a Democratic gain of 225; Somerset county, Boyer (Rep.), 1,800, a Democratic gain of 331; Lancaster county, Boyer, 6,000, a Democratic gain of 597; Union county, Boyer, 650, a Democratic gain of 75; Greene county, Bigler, 950, a Republican gain of 791; Forrest county, Boyer, 250, a Republican gain of 29; Chester county, Boyer, 3,090, a Republican gain of 557; Lackawanna county, Boyer, 500, a Republican gain of 1,373; Berks county, Bigler, 4,550, a Republican gain of 877; Columbia county, Bigler, 1,000, a Republican gain of 315; Franklin county, Boyer, 400, a Democratic gain of 254; Fayette county, Bigler, 590, a Democratic gain of 393; Wayne county, Bigler, 150, a Democratic gain of 72; Mifflin county, Boyer, 600, a Democratic gain of 402; Butler county, Boyer, 400, a Democratic gain of 428; Bedford county, Boyer, 275, a Republican gain of 106; Mercer county, Boyer, 1,000, a Democratic gain of 223.

Philadelphia county, with two wards to hear from, gives Boyer for state treasurer 37,700 majority over Bigler. Graham (Rep.) for district attorney has 40,300 majority over Lewis (Dem.).

PITTSBURG, Pa, Nov. 6.—The election was the quietest known in Allegheny county for years. There was no interest manifested outside of the contest for the district attorneyship and a very light vote was polled. The Republican ticket was cut badly, but from the meager returns at midnight the indications are that the county will give Boyer (Rep.), for State Treasurer, about 5,000 majority. R. H. Johnston, Democratic candidate for district attorney, has been elected by a majority estimated at 8,000. The remainder of the Republican county ticket succeeded in pulling through with greatly reduced majorities.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 6.—Johnstown is now a city in fact, all of the boroughs but one or two in the outlying districts having been carried for consolidation. The whole Democratic ticket is elected in Cambria county.

VIRGINIA.

McKinney Beats Mahone by from 10,000 to 20,000.

Governor.....PHILIP W. McKINNEY
Lieutenant-Governor.....HOGE TAYLOR
Attorney-General.....TAYLOR SCOTT

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—The weather opened cloudy Tuesday morning but cool. A full vote was polled throughout the State. Much interest was manifested in the election, and but little business was transacted Tuesday.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—Philip W. McKinney has been elected Governor of Virginia. At Republican headquarters the party leaders acknowledge defeat. Anything like exact figures are unobtainable, but the most conservative estimates place the Democratic majority at 10,000. Democrats claim the State by not less than 20,000. With two precincts to hear from this city gives McKinney a majority of 5,400. Nineteen counties show a Democratic gain over 1888 of 9,000. Wythe county, nearly complete, gives a Democratic majority of 5,000 and elects a Democrat to the House of Delegates. The county was represented by a Republican last year. Unexpected Democratic gains are reported from nearly every county in the State.

About the usual number of election disturbances took place in connection with the close of the campaign and also during the voting. One of these resulted in a murder, committed here Monday night by Phill Lambert. He and Michael Fall had a dispute about politics and the result was a fist fight, in which Lambert was badly worsted. He at once procured a shotgun, hunted Fall up and shot him. The wounded man died Tuesday. Lambert is in jail. Dispatches show that numerous arrests of negroes have been made at many places

Richmond gives McKinney and the rest of the Democratic ticket a majority twice as large as ever given before. The Republicans concede the State by 15,000. Up to this hour the Democrats have gained eight members of the legislature. The estimate is that the Democrats will have a two-thirds majority in each house. In Henrico county which has been heretofore Republican, Davis (Dem.) is conceded elected to the Legislature by Republicans. Large Democratic gains in Blackbelt, Halifax county, heretofore Republican, gives 1,500 Democratic majority. The official Democratic majority in city of Richmond, 5,463, a Democratic gain of 3,485.

Campbell county gives 800 majority for McKinney. A Democratic majority of 7,000 in the Sixth district is claimed. Southampton county (Mahone's birthplace) gives 600 Democratic majority, a Democratic gain of 1,100. The city gives McKinney 2,156, Mahone 1,317. McKinney's majority, 839; Democratic gain, 586. Returns from surrounding counties and from southwest Virginia indicate Mahone's over whelming defeat.

General Mahone Arrested.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 6.—Gen. Mahone was arrested Tuesday night, charged with shooting Herbert P. Harrison, who, with a number of companions, was sending off fireworks in front of Mahone's residence. Gen. Mahone denied having fired the shot or that any one on his premises fired it. Harrison is wounded in the fleshy part of the thigh, the ball going entirely through the leg, but not inflicting a serious wound.

NEBRASKA.

The Republican Ticket Elected by from 18,000 to 20,000 Majority.

Judge of Supreme Court.....T. L. NORVAL
Regents State University } C. H. MORRILL
} J. L. H. KNIGHT
Member Congress, 2d Dis. GILBERT L. LAWS

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—The election passed off quietly here and throughout the State. The weather was clear and bracing. More than the average vote of an "off year" was cast.

Nothing has been heard so far to change the estimate of a Republican majority of 18,000 to 20,000 on the State ticket. Chairman Richards of the Republican State central committee, thinks it safe to say that Norval (Rep.) is elected Supreme judge by 17,000, and Morrill and Knight, Republican Regents of the State University, by 20,000.

Hastings—Reports from nineteen counties in the Second Congressional District gives Laws, Republican, for Congress, 6,000 majority.

Omaha—Returns show a great falling off in the vote from last year, with slight Democratic gains. Only two of the twenty-four precincts of Omaha City have been heard from on account of the large amount of scratching done. The same condition of affairs exists in Lincoln and the other cities of the State, but returns from the country precincts would indicate about a two-thirds vote as compared with last year, with a Republican majority running from eighteen to twenty thousand on Supreme judge. In the Second Congressional district, Laws, Republican, will be elected by from two to three thousand majority. Last year Baird, Republican, received a majority of over eight thousand.

CHICAGO.

Democrats Win Everything but the Recordership.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Returns from the city wards received up to midnight indicate the election of the Democratic ticket in the city by majorities varying from 1,500 to 2,500 for Edmunson and smaller majorities for all the other candidates. The vote was a small one. John Stephens is elected recorder over Mark Crawford. Henry M. Shepard, Democrat, and George Driggs, Republican, are elected to the Superior court bench on a non-partisan ticket; Henry C. Senne, Republican, is defeated by George Edmanson, Democrat, for chairman of the county board; ten Democratic county commissioners are elected in the city, and possibly one Democrat out of the five commissioners from the country towns has also won.

The vote in favor of the new drainage district which Chicago proposes establishing at a cost of several millions of dollars was overwhelmingly carried; in fact, there were few votes against it anywhere.

NEW YORK.

The Democratic State Ticket Elected by 10,000 Majority.

Secretary of State.....FRANK RICE
Comptroller.....EDWARD WEMPLE
Attorney-General.....CHARLES F. TABOR
Treasurer.....ELLIOTT DANFORTH
State Engineer...W. V. VAN RENSSALAER
Associate Judge of Court of Appeals
DENNIS O'BRIEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Returns received indicate that the Democratic State ticket is elected by about 10,000 majority. The next Legislature will be composed as follows: Senate, 21 Republicans and 11 Democrats; Assembly, 67 Republicans and 51 Democrats.

One thousand three hundred and forty-two election districts in New York State, outside of New York city and Brooklyn, give Rice 196,150 and Gilbert 230,183. The same in 1887 gave Cook 194,669 and Grant 219,218.

Twelve hundred and twenty-four election districts in New York State outside of New York city and Brooklyn show a Republican gain of 9,394 as compared with the vote of the same district in 1887.

New York city complete gives Rice 129,091; Gilbert, 56,722; Wemple, 126,247; Cooke, 68,602.

Returns received at police headquarters show that the majority for Tammany hall on the local ticket will be about 35,000.

Amos J. Cummings (Dem.) is elected to Congress from the Ninth district. He received 15,518 votes against 24 for John L. Thomas (Pro).

Brooklyn—Kings county complete gives Rice 69,163, Gilbert 58,328. Mayor Chapin is elected.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Brackett Undoubtedly Elected—Success of the Australian System.

For Governor.....J. Q. A. BRACKETT.
Lieut.-Governor.....WILLIAM H. HAILE.
Secretary of State.....HENRY B. PIERCE.
Treasurer.....GEORGE A. WARDEN.
Auditor.....CHARLES R. LADD.
Att'y-Gen.....ANDREW J. WATERMAM.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 6.—The weather in Massachusetts Tuesday was cloudy and an average vote was cast. The Australian system is reported as having worked well.

Returns are coming in slowly and at this hour there are many towns and cities to be heard from. Brackett is undoubtedly elected Governor, but even the Republicans now concede that his plurality will be small, it being variously estimated at from 3,000 to 700.

One hundred and ninety-seven towns and cities give Brackett (Rep.), 34,076; Russell (Dem.), 27,202. The same towns in 1887 gave Ames, 23,215; Lovering, 17,431.

Two hundred and eighty-five precincts in Boston give Russell (Rep.), 27,908; Brackett (Dem.), 22,810. Only one precinct is now lacking. This shows a decrease in the Democratic plurality over 1887 of about 200, and a decrease in Russell's plurality over last year of about 3,500.

Tuesday's experience has seemed to prove beyond doubt the success of the Australian system of voting, and testimony from all sections of the State is almost unanimous in its praise.

NEW JERSEY.

Democrats Re-Elect Their Governor and Probably Control the Legislature.

Governor.....LEON ABBETT

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 6.—The present Governor is a Democrat, and both Houses of the Legislature are controlled by the same party. The polls in this State did not close until 7 oclock, and the returns are late. Enough are in, however, to make it certain that Leon Abbett, the Democratic candidate, has been elected by an overwhelming majority over General E. Burd Grubb, the Republican candidate, and that the Democrats have retained control of the assembly, and perhaps the senate also. The latest returns, however, indicate that the Republicans will retain the senate by gaining the senator from Cumberland county, which is naturally theirs, and retaining Atlantic county, which is doubtful. The senate will then stand eleven Republicans to ten Democrats. The result as to the assembly is very mixed on account of the redistricting of the State by the last Legislature, the districts having been so changed that intelligent forecasts of the result have been impracticable.

MISSISSIPPI.

But Little Interest Taken in the One-Sided Election of Officers.

Governor.....JOHN M. STONE
Lieutenant-Governor.....M. M. EVANS
Secretary of State.....GEORGE McGOVAN
Auditor of Public Accounts.....W. W. STONE
Attorney-General..T. MARSHALL MILLER
For State Treasurer.....JOSEPH J. EVANS
Superintendent of Education.J. D. PIFFTON

The Republicans of Mississippi nominated a full State ticket, headed by James R. Chalmers for Governor, but it was withdrawn from the field.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 6.—So little interest was felt in the election, there being no opposition to the Democratic ticket, that the executive committee did not provide for returns as heretofore. Five counties having local dissensions enjoyed some little excitement, but otherwise the election unusually quiet and uninteresting. Unfavorable weather made the vote even lighter than was anticipated.

Maryland.

State Controller..VICTOR L. BAUGHMAN.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 6.—The weather Tuesday was clear and bracing and a full vote was polled.

Partial returns indicate that Baughman (Dem.) is re-elected State controller by about 11,000 majority, a gain of 2,000 on his former vote.

The representation in the Legislature will be twelve Democrats sure, with six others doubtful, and chances in favor of the Republicans and independent Democrats.

Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.—The election in Kansas was for county offices only. Democratic gains are generally reported.

Shooting at Johnstown, Pa.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 6.—John Matthews (colored) was fatally shot last night by Charles Carter (also colored) in a quarrel. Matthews was taken to the Red Cross hospital. Carter escaped and is still at large.

It was once supposed that scrofula could not be eradicated from the system; but the marvelous results produced by by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla disprove this theory. The reason is, this medicine is the most powerful blood-purifier ever discovered.

The Fruit of Violence.

In no case is the folly of violence in medication more conspicuously shown by its fruit than in the effect upon the intestines of excessive purgation. The stomach and bowels are painfully griped then the latter is copiously, suddenly and repeatedly evacuated. This is far beyond the necessities of the case, most unnatural, excessively debilitated. The organs are incapacitated from resuming their function with normal moderation. An astringent is resorted to which reduces them to their former condition of inaction. To this monstrous and harmful absurdity, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the happy alternative. It relieves gently, naturally, and sufficently, it diverts bile from the blood into its proper channel, it insures healthful digestion and complete assimilation: It is a complete defense against malaria, and conquers rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, kidney and bladder trouble.

AFFAIRS ACROSS THE SEA.

ITALIAN FORCES READY TO MARCH ON FRANCE.

Only the Defeat of Boulanger Prevented the Outbreak of Hostilities—A Day's Foreign News.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—M. Deloucla, secretary of M. Spuller, minister of foreign affairs, aeserts in an article published in Dix Neuvienne Siecle, that during the recent political campaign in France the Italian government, anticipating a Boulangist victory, massed 80,000 troops, who only waited for a signal to invade France. He also declares that M. Crispi endeavored to induce England and Germany to consent to Italy sending a note to France with a demand for the latter's abandonment of her protectorate over Tunis, couched in such terms as to provoke war, but England refused, and Germany, according to M. Deloucla, sent a violent protest to Premier Crispi. The triumph of President Carnot overthrew the plans of Italy.

Sir Henry James on Parnellism.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Sir Henry James continued his speech before the Parnell commission to-day.

He declared that Parnellism was a conspiracy to destroy landlordism and to rupture the union between Great Britain and Ireland. Mr. Parnell's last visit to America, Sir Henry said, was ostensibly to collect money for the relief of distress in Ireland, but really to procure funds to support the treasonable aims of the league. Mr. Parnell had appealed for assistance to men who were well known plotters against the British government.

Master Lightermen Give In.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A meeting of the master lightermen was held to-day to consider the demands of their striking employes. A number of speeches were made in which the conviction was expressed that a long strike would be ruinous to the port. Seveteen lighter firms have conceded the terms demanded by the men. This action is likely to avert a serious suspension of trade. The men are willing that the Lord Mayor and Cardinal Manning should intervene between themselves and their employes for a settlement of the trouble.

Spain's New Cabinet.

LISBON, Nov. 6.—The cabinet will be as follows: Senor Luciano Castro, premier and minister of the interior; Senor Eduardo Coelho, minister of justice; Senor Oliveira Martins, minister of finance; Maj. Franzini, minister of war; Senor Antonio Eunes, minister of the colonies; Senor Barros Gomes, minister of foreign affairs; Senor Ressano Garcia, minister of public works.

No Outrages Committed by Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—Official dispatches from Chakir Pasha, Governor of Crete, assert that the reports of outrages by the Turks in the island are unfounded. Nothing has occurred beyond an excess of zeal on the part of the Septichs in discharging their duties. The soldiers, he says, merely solicited women. No outrages on them were committed.

The Prince of Wales in Egypt.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Nov. 6.—The Prince of Wales sailed to-day on the royal yacht Osborne from Alexandria for the Piracus. Upon his arrival at Alexandria from Cairo he received an ovation. The streets were decorated with garlands and flags, and triumphal arches were erected along the route.

Count Kalnoky in Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Count Kalnoky, the Austro-Hungarian prime minister, arrived in Berlin this morning on his way to Vienna. During his stay at Prince Bismarck's residence at Friedrichsruhe he took long drives with the chancellor, returning each day at dusk to dine.

Emperor William Among the Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—Emperor William made an excursion on the Bosphorus to-day. The imperial visitors will take leave of the Sultan to-morrow, staying one day longer than they intended, and will sail at noon for Venice.

Carnot Aids the Poor of Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—President Carnot has repeated a former gift of 25,000 francs, which he bestowed on the poor of Paris.

Count Herbert at Pesth.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Count Herbert Bismarck has arrived at Pesth.

Liberals Win in Italy.

ROME, Nov. 6.—The municipal elections held throughout Italy on Sunday resulted in victories for the Liberals and Radicals.

CHARLES J. DODGE DEAD.

A Brilliant Attorney of Burlington Passes Away After a Brief Illness.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Nov. 6.—This community was shocked Tuesday by the announcement of the sudden death of Charles J. Dodge, one of the most prominent and brightest lawyers in this section of Iowa, which occurred about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening after an illness of but a few days. Deceased was a son of the late Gen. A. C. Dodge, and a brother of State Senator W. W. Dodge of this district, and himself formerly filled the office of prosecuting attorney of this county. He was about 45 years of age.

The Bust of Morton Unveiled.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Tuesday a bust of the late Hon. O. P. Morton was unveiled in Crown Hill cemetry. The bust is of white marble, a little over three feet high, designed by Symonds, and executed in Rome. Chief Justice Byram K. Elliott presided over the ceremonies. The Rev. Dr. Day acted as chaplain.

A Molders' Strike Ended.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The strike of molders in the Brooks locomotive works, which has lasted two weeks, has ended, the men returning to work this morning, on condition that the union is not to interfere with the managers employing such men as they choose. The men discharged will not be reinstated.

Snow and Sand Storm in New Mexico.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 6.—A regular blizzard is prevailing in this vicinity. The Sandia mountains west are covered with snow, a heavy storm occurring in the valley. A frightfully destructive sand storm has raged for forty-eight hours.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Live Stock—Receipts of cattle 7,000. Trade slow and only the best export steers salable at satisfactory prices. Common stock, either natives, rangers, or Texans, almost unsalable unless at ruinously low prices. Receipts of hogs, 17,000; packers and heavy sold a nickel lower and light sorts about a nickel higher. Packers paid $3.85 to $4.00, largely $3.90 to $3.95, and shippers $4.00 to $4.10, light sorts $4.10 to $4.45. Receipts of sheep, 6,000; in fair demand and steady.

The consciousness of having a remedy at hand for croup, pneumonia, sore throat, and sudden colds, is very consoling to a parent. With a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, one feels, in such cases, a sense of security nothing else can give.

O, MAMMA!

NOTICE!

To Whom It May Concern:

Never having advertised any lies or falsehoods to the people of Rock county and city of Janesville and not having had the pleasure of giving them any benefit since the days of "Sam & Pete," and for the past thirty years have attended to business so close that I have impaired my health and have got to retire from the clothing business. Now I want to reduce my stock so that my boys or some one else will be able and willing to take the store after the cost sale.

I Will Commence on Thursday, Oct. 17

1889, to sell every dollar's worth of goods at cost in my store. I came here 42 years ago, to stay, and I am not going away the 1st of January, nor will my store be closed, but will be conducted by some one that with everybody, who wishes to purchase goods from the house.

WILL - DEAL - FAIR - AND - HONEST

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity, of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned." —J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time." —E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

THE CRONIN TRIAL.

Postponed for a Day—May Testify Against Burke.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The Cronin trial was adjourned Tuesday morning until 10 o'clock Wednesday. Judge McConnell decided that as Tuesday was a legal holiday the Supreme court might hold that all the proceedings of that day were illegal.

D. E. McKinnon, the detective of the Canadian Pacific railroad who arrested "Suspect" Burke at Winnipeg, will be one of the witnesses at the Cronin trial this week.

McKinnon's testimony will be valuable to the State as showing Burke's fight to be an evidence of guilt. All the evidence so far in the hands of the State's attorney shows only that Burke was at Winnipeg and was arrested there. The fact that he was at that place is no evidence of attempted flight. He might have been there on perfectly legitimate business. McKinnon's testimony will show that Burke at Winnipeg was trying to escape by using a false name, and trying to avoid a discovery of his identity. McKinnon arrested Burke at the railroad yards while the suspect was skulking around attempting to enter by the back way, so as to board the train without having to pass through the well-lighted station. McKinnon took Burke to the police station and searched him. On the prisoner he found the money receipt in the name of "Cooper" and the railroad ticket which he had also purchased under a false name.

When arrested Burke strenuously denied his true name, and did everything he could to persuade the officers that his name was "Cooper." All this will tend to prove that Burke was endeavoring to escape arrest, and did so from consciousness of guilt, and the "evidence of flight," as the lawyers say, is held to be very strong, especially if corroborative of a theory of guilt founded on circumstantial evidence.

Chief of Police McRae has been requested by the State's Attorney to come to Chicago and testify, but he has not yet indicated whether he will do so. It was rumored around the Criminal court building before the adjournment of court Tuesday that Heffner and Mills, the two men to whom it is said Burke confessed his complicity in the murder, will also come with McKinnon. The rumor seemed to be well-founded, and the State's attorney's evasive answers when questioned on this point seemed to give some confirmation to the story.

FIRE IN A SHIP'S HOLD.

Narrow Escape from the Flames of a Cargo of Cotton.

GALVESTON, Texas, Nov. 6.—Last night fire was discovered in the main hold of the British steamship Moss Brow. The steam tugs Cynthia and Buckthorn went to the relief of the steamer, and turning on their hose soon had the flames suppressed. The Moss Brow had aboard 4,100 bales of cotton and had 100 more bales to receive to complete her cargo. She cleared yesterday for Liverpool and expected to sail to-morrow. The fire is confined to the main hold and its origin is a mystery. The tugs Cynthia and Buckthorn remained alongside the steamer during the night. It is thought she will have to discharge her entire cargo and reload. A report is current that a vessel is on fire in the outer anchorage, but it is not credited, as no particulars are obtainable.

FIRE IN ALLEGHENY CITY.

Buildings Destroyed and One Man Supposed to Have Been Burned.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 6.—An early morning fire on North avenue in Allegheny City destroyed Dovey's brass foundry and the buildings adjoining, occupied by the Allegheny City Carpet-Cleaning Company. The stables in the rear were also burned. A colored hostler, name unknown, is supposed to have been lost in the flames. The loss is $40,000, partially covered by insurance.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

A Small Village Near Rockford Visited by a Destructive Blaze.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 6.—Pecatonica, a small village fifteen miles west of here, was visited with a $25,000 fire Monday evening. The large hardware store of J. S. Hulse was totally destroyed together with contents. The Rockford fire department responded by special train to a call for aid.

WASHINGTON'S MUDDLE.

A Technical Defect in a Certificate Delaying the President's Proclamation.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 6.—Most of the members of the Legislature are here and the Senatorial candidates will have headquarters opened. One Senator will come from east of the Cascade mountains and the other from the west. The eastern candidates are Sam Childs and George Turner, and ex-Delegates John B. Allen and Thomas H. Brents, both of Walla Walla. The western candidates are ex-Gov. Squire of Seattle, Gen. W. J. Sprague and W. J. Thompson of Tacoma. Squire has the lead and it is expected will be nominated on the first ballot. The eastern Senatorial contest is uncertain.

Everybody supposed the Legislature would meet Wednesday, as provided in the constitution, but Monday a telegram was received from President Harrison saying that the certificate attached to the official copy of the constitution sent him was technically incomplete, not having been signed by the Territorial Governor. A special messenger has been sent to Washington with a copy of the constitution properly certified, but he cannot arrive until next Sunday. It is not known if this will delay issuing the proclamation, and the President has been telegraphed to find out. The question has arisen as to whether the Legislature can meet until the proclamation has been issued. Governor-Elect Ferry holds it can not, because the constitution says that the constitution shall only become operative after the issuance of the proclamation. Ferry holds, consequently, that if the Legislature meets before the Presidential proclamation is issued it does so without authority, as the authority for its meeting—namely: the constitution itself—only becomes operative after the proclamation is issued. So probably the Legislature can not meet until next week, or possibly the week after.

Walked Out of Church.

OTTAWA, Ontario, Nov. 6.—During the services in St. George's Episcopal church, Sunday, several gentlemen among whom was Sir William Ritchie, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, arose and left in a body on account of the alleged ritualistic practices. The trouble will probably result in the resignation of the rector, Rev. Dr. Jones.

Low Rates East From Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 6.—The South Shore road has made a rate to Boston, New York and Philadelphia on lumber from Duluth of 35 cents for the former place and 33 cents for the two latter. This is 15 cents lower than via of Chicago and only 5 cents higher than Chicago to New York and Boston.

"THE GREAT CORN PALACE."

The committees that have in charge the arrangements for the coming Corn Palace at Sioux City, promise a display fare xceeding anything of the character heretofore attempted. The Corn Palace itself, built entirely of corn and grain, will fitly illustrate the agricultural resources of the vast area of country tributary to Sioux City, and the internal displays will epitomize the progress and enterprise of the hosts of earnest workers who are pushing the developement of that favored region in which "Corn is King."

To enable all to visit this "Eighth Wonder of the World," the Chicago & Northwestern Railway will sell Excursion tickets to Sioux City at half rates or one fare for the round trip.

The Corn Palace will be open September 23d, and close October 5th, and during that period numerous special trains will be run for the accommodation of visitors.

Tickets and full information can be obtained on application to agents of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company.

WEDDED TO BE A WIDOW.

Mrs. McKee Was Disgusted Because Her Husband Did Not Die on Time.

Another matrimonial event booked for the near future is given unusual interest by the bride's former marriage, which created a sensation at the time. The lady's name is Frankie Brown-McKee, the daughter of the late Hiram Brown, who was a wealthy resident of Oakland. Upon the death of her father Miss Frankie fell heir to $50,000, and she immediately started in to enjoy life at a rather rapid rate. Among her throng of acquaintances was a dashing widow, who became the bosom friend of the young heiress. Frankie admired the ways and manners of her friend, and thought that if she could only become a widow herself she would possess all the attractions which she so greatly envied. She sought the advice of her friend, Capt. Richard Apgar, who has since died. He told her to marry some man who was dying and offered to secure such a bridegroom. Frankie Brown assented. Capt. Apgar's friend, Dr. Anson A. DuPuy, was treating for consumption a young printer named McKee. The young man was informed of the young lady's desire, and also of her offer to pay his expenses until he died and to provide for his funeral. The printer was dazzled by the glittering offer and lost no time in consenting to the marriage. Miss Brown called upon McKee, was satisfied with the deathly pallor of his cheeks, and married him. Then she hied her to a dressmaker's and ordered an elaborate funeral trousseau.

The printer lingered long—too long, his bride thought. From time to time word was brought to her from the sick-bed. The reports which told her that her husband was fast nearing his end were encouraging, and they were usually accompanied with little bills for attendance upon him which she promptly paid. Finally she decided to satisfy herself by ocular demonstration that McKee was not going to repudiate his contract by living. She was proceeding down Broadway, Oakland, one day, with the intention of visiting her husband in this city, but as she was about to board a train a hand was laid upon her arm. Turning her head, her eyes rested upon a well-built, broad-shouldered young man, with the glow of health in his cheeks and a well-rounded stomach that betrayed great intimacy with the good things of life. It was her husband. She nearly fainted, but recovered quickly and upbraided McKee for not dying on schedule time. She emphatically announced that she would not live with him, whereupon he demanded a cash settlement. Frankie honored his demands and they were renewed. The strain was too much for her purse and she fled to Europe to escape her husband's importunities. When he saw that he had lost her McKee took to drink and in about six months died in a blissful state of intoxication.

Then his widow quit hobnobbing with foreign potentates and returned home, taking up her abode in San Francisco. It was not long before Arthur Newton, better known as Arthur Bascombe, an actor, dawned upon her vision. He was fair to look upon, an Englishman, thirty years of age, tall and well built, his blonde curly locks making a nice contrast with the widow-bride's auburn ringlets. Newton belongs to a good family, and since Frankie Brown-McKee has consented to become his bride he has abandoned the stage and now represents an Eastern manufacturing house. The lady will soon fly towards the rising sun, where the nuptials will be celebrated, after which she and Arthur will visit the Oriental countries of the far East.

Defect in Our Educational System.

But one thing more of this same general kind is sadly needed. Perhaps the most serious defect of the system of liberal education now prevalent in this country is its lack of a truly progressive character. It is full of fits and starts. It is too disjointed and fragmentary. This is partly because there are no settled principles of procedure, fixing the order and amounts of the studies; and partly because there is no power which can secure teachers that know precisely what they are expected, fitted, and permitted to teach. The consequence is that the different years of school life too much resemble the different successive sessions of our Legislatures. Milton somewhere describes the process of legislation as "hatching a lie with the heat of jurisdiction." Fortunately, the process also consists in killing the brood of lies already hatched by previous legislation. Now the process of education in this country is by no means so bad in this regard as the process of legislation; but in certain respects the former too much resembles the latter.

His Title Fixed On.

He had built a street railway from the town depot to the town Court House, a distance of half a mile, and had put on a couple of bobtailed cars, each propelled by a seal-brown mule. He had, further, opened a headquarters office and secured a clerk, and as the "bobs" made their first successful trips his bosom swelled with pride, and he turned to his young man with the observation:

"The road has a name—'The Rushville Street Railway and Transit Company'—but it seems proper that I should have a title. Have you thought of the matter?"

"I have, sir," was the prompt reply, "and I beg to submit the title—'President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Rushville Street Railway and Transit Company and General Manager of the Western Hemisphere.'"

"Splendid idea!" exclaimed the President, and the printing was at once ordered.

He Was Misunderstood.

Judge—You have abandoned your wife. Not only that, but before you left you treated her in the most brutal manner, dragging her around the room by the hair of her head.

Culprit—What a fuss you all make because I took a lock of my own wife's hair by which to remember her during my absence.

MR. DEPEW.

The Railroader's Suave Manner of Ridding Himself of Bores.

Marshall P. Wilder tells this story of Depew in his recently published book, "People I've Smiled With." He says:

Mr. Depew is quite as competent at getting rid of bores as at looking after his friends. I remember one morning calling there when he was very busy. So I sat down and amused myself with a newspaper, awaiting his convenience. His genial secretary stood at the door trying to guard his superior officer from being bothered, but somehow one fellow slipped in, and Mr. Depew immediately greeted him pleasantly, with, "Ah, good morning; sit down." The man immediately began to tell the railroad President that on his farm was the one particular thing that Mr. Depew needed in the shape of stone to ballast his railroad. Now, Mr. Depew could have told that man that he already had the quality of stone he needed, which was the truth, but that would have brought on an argument, so he said: "Oh, yes, that reminds me of a story," then he got up to tell the story, and how splendidly he did it. I shall never forget it. The man rose with him, and as the two walked together Mr. Depew edged gently toward the door. By this time the story was nearly finished; both were halfway out of the door. When the point came the man laughed heartily; Depew shook hands with him, said good-morning, and was back to his desk and hard at work again, before the man got through laughing, or realized that he wasn't inside the office.

THE intelligence of shepherd dogs is one of the well-known facts of canine history, and many stories are told of the manner in which they distinguish sheep by the different marks. A shepherd dog without sheep feels that his occupation is gone, especially if he has been trained to herd a flock. Not long ago people of a small village were in great distress. Not a child could be found. After a long search there was a great outcry. All the small children of the village were found in a deserted yard watched by a shepherd dog. Not having any sheep, he had followed his instinct by collecting all the children of the place into one fold.

An Awful Sore Limb

Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies in two months.

Cured by Cuticura

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief, whatever, I was persuaded to try your Cuticura Remedies, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified, and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and to-day, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as ever it was sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen. S. G. AHERN, Dubois, Dodge Co., Ga.

I feel it my duty to you and the public to state the above case. L. R. McDOWELL, Jamesburg, N. J.

TO MONTANA, OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

If you are going west bear in mind the following facts: The Northern Pacific Railroad owns and operates 987 miles, or 57 per cent. of the entire railroad mileage of Montana; spans the territory with its main lines from east to west; is the short line to Helena; the only Pullman and dining car line to Butte, and is the only line that reaches Miles City, Billings, Bozeman, Missoula, the Yellowstone National Park and, in fact, nine tenths of the cities and points of interest in the territory.

The Northern Pacific owns and operates 621 miles or 56 per cent of the railroad mileage of Washington, its main line extending from the Idaho line via Spokane Falls, Cheney, Sprague, Yakima and Ellensburg, through the center of the territory to Tacoma and Seattle, and from Tacoma to Portland. No other transcontinental through rail line reaches any portion of Washington Territory. Ten days stop over privileges are given on Northern Pacific second class tickets at Spokane Falls and all points west, thus affording intending settlers an excellent opportunity to see the entire territory without incurring the expense of paying local fares from point to point.

The Northern Pacific is the shortest route from St. Paul to Tacoma by 207 miles; to Seattle by 177 miles, and to Portland by 324 miles—time correspondingly shorter, varying from one to two days, according to destination. No other line from St. Paul or Minneapolis runs through passenger cars of any kind into Idaho, Oregon or Washington.

In addition to being the only rail line to Spokane Falls, Tacoma and Seattle, the Northern Pacific reaches all the principal points in Northern Minnesota and Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Bear in mind that the Northern Pacific and Shasta line is the scenic route to all points in California.

Send for illustrated pamphlets, maps, and books giving you valuable information in reference to the country traversed by this great line from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Ashland to Portland, Oregon, and Tacoma and Seattle, Washington, Territory, and enclose stamps for the new 1889 Rand McNally County map of Washington Territory, printed in colors.

The stone, which was as large as a man's fist, went through the pane right at the lower edge. This pane of glass is one of the largest in the state and cost about $175. It weighs about two hundred pounds and was made to order at Pittsburgh, and was insured in the Fidelity and Casuality Plate Glass Insurance Company of New York, represented by Silas Hayner.

MATRIMONIAL.

BENNETT-CHAPMAN.

A most happy social event took place last evening at the residence of Mrs. Amanda E. Chapman, 59 Washington street, it being the marriage of Miss Laura E. Chapman, daughter of the hostess, and Mr. Chester C. Bennett. At 8 o'clock a large party of invited friends and relatives assembled in the handsomely decorated home, and with joyful expressions of happiness, the Rev. W. F. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, pronounced the words which united the pair as husband and wife. Congratulations of the heartiest kind followed, then came the feast. The bride, who is a great favorite in the young people's societies as well as in musical circles, was kindly remembered by her many friends, who sent her rich and beautiful tokens of their regards. Mr. Bennett has but recently become a resident of Janesville, he being now engaged in the grocery business on West Milwaukee street, and has won many firm friends during his brief residence here. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will make their home for the present with the bride's mother. The best wishes of many friends will be extended to the newly married couple.

Among those present from abroad were Mrs. Pratt and Miss Winston, of Evansville; Mrs. Vedder, of Sharon; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark, of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Bennett, of Beloit; Mrs. L. S. Holley, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bennett, of Lima; Mr. John Barlass, of Rock Prairie; Miss Nellie Barlass, of Emerald Grove; Mr. John Stockman and Miss Sophia Stockman, of Milton Junction.

KNUDSON-STAPLETON.

Mr. Christ Knudson, of Janesville and Miss Delphine H. Stapleton were married on November 3d, at the home of the bride's parents in Footville, the Rev. W. R. Mellett, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. They will be cordially congratulated by their many friends.

A RECEPTION.

TENDERED PROF. C. H. KEYES BY THE PUPILS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL AT ALL SOULS CHURH PARLORS—HE IS CHARMED.

The All Souls church parlors presented a lively appearance last evening, the occasion being an informal reception tendered Prof. C. H. Keyes by the pupils of the high school. The evening was spent in social intercourse until ten o'clock, when the assemblage broke up. Mr. E. M. Hyzer in brief, appropriate and pointed words, presented to Prof. C. H. Keyes in behalf of the pupils, an elegan Knights of Pythias emblem in the form of a watch charm. It was in the shape of a Greek cross, set with diamonds. Prof. Keyes responded feelingly, and with tears in his eyes, thanked the scholars for their remembrance and regard for him, and wished for his successor the same cordial support that he had received, with which success was assured. He then introduced Prof. I. N. Stewart, the new superintendent, who responded with a few well chosen words. Supt. Keyes expects to leave for Sheboygan the last of the week, and will take the regards and well wishes of a large circle of friends with him.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE NOVEMBER TERM.

The November term of the circuit court for Rock county convened in this city this morning, Judge John R. Bennett presiding. The calender embraces over one hundred cases. The morning was occupied in the calling of the calendar and arranging cases for trial and the excusing of jurors.

The jurymen excused were B. A. Chapman, R. J. Burdge, and James Wilson, of Beloit; James Madden, of Janesville; Moses Kirkpatrick, of Spring Valley; J. T. Wright, of Janesville; and Harry Howe, of Center.

This afternoon the case of Arthur Hern vs. Carlos Brown and Walter Brown, is now on trial and at the time of going to press the jury is being drawn.

ROCK COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of this association will be held at Beloit Tuesday and Wednesday, November 19-20. All schools are expected to send delegates. Everyone interested invited.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 25 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 50 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 41 and 47 degrees above zero.

He Received a Message from the Express.

Christopher Gould, the assistant despatcher of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, who resides at 609 North St., Harrisburg, last Wednesday received $15,000 from the Louisiana State Lottery. He held one-twentieth of ticket No. 8,174 which drew the first capital prize of $300,000, in the drawing of the 10 inst. In a personal interview with the gentleman, he informed us that the first ticket he ever purchased was about four months ago, and that $8 was all that he had invested in it.—Steelton (Pa.) Advocate Sept. 27.

COMPANION PICTURES.

Another handsome reminder of the continued enterprise of the Youth's Companion, the favorite family paper, has come to us in the form of a colored announcement card, printed in fourteen colors. It is folded in the center, and has on either cover companion pictures.

Spring is represented by a beautiful maiden who is returning through the fields, her hands filled with trailing arbutus—that delicate spring flower which grows so plentifully in many localities. On the companion page, the farmer's daughter is pictured coming through the harvested grain, carrying a well-filled picher and basket. The bearer of the noon-day lunch is a welcome sight to the hungry reapers. The interior of the card contains an array of authors and articles for the coming volume unsurpassed by any paper.

This beautiful card is only an indication of the great enterprise of the Companion which has made it a national family paper, with more than 430,000 subscribers. Nowhere can there be obtained so much entertainment and instruction for so little money (only $1.75 a year.)

If you subscribe now you will receive the paper free to Jan. 1, 1890, and for a full year from that date. The publishers offer to send specimen copies and this colored announcement card free. Address the Youth's Companion Boston, Mass.

GERMAN JOKES.

SHE REMEMBERED HIM.

He—So you recognize me.

She—I knew you as soon as I saw you.

"It is very flattering to me that you should recognize me when you have not seen me since we met at the seaside three years ago. Would you mind telling me what it is that has kept my image fresh in your memory all this time."

"Why, you have got on the same shabby coat and old-fashioned stove-pipe hat you wore three years ago."

CONSIDERATE MONOPOLIES.

"It is very kind in the railroad company to put up those signs: Beware of Pickpockets! If it wasn't for them signs we pickpockets whould have to go out of the business," said a pickpocket to the officer who had arrested him.

"These signs were put up to spoil your trade," replied the officer.

"But they don't," said the pickpocket. "As soon as a country jay reads the sign if he has any money he puts his hand on it. We know then he has money and where he keeps it. We follow him up, and as soon as he takes his hand out of his pocket we put ours in. See? Great thing for the perfesh those signs. Don't tell me after this that corporations have no souls."

NOT ALTOGETHER ALONE.

There was a very small audience present and it was dwindling away. On the stage the hero and heroine are holding a rendezvous.

Hero to heroine—Are we alone?

Heroine (thinking of the audience)—Not yet, there are two fellows near the door who look as if they might be able to sit through another act.

AT THE MARRIAGE AGENCY.

Would-be customer—Yes, I would like to marry, and if you come across a handsome, young, amiable girl who has money and wants a good home, just drop me a postal

Marriage broker—I beg your pardon, but if I find that kind of a female I'm going to marry her myself.

MITIGATED AFFECTION.

She—Am I always in your mind, dearest?

He—Well, Clara, I can't say that exactly, but during the summer when the days were real long, I often thought of you several times, but now that the days are shorter, I, of course, don't think of you as often as I did in the summer, but I manage to think of you at least once a day, and occasionally twice.

A GOOD IDEA.

A.—Have you heard the latest news?

B.—No; what is it?

"You know Smith, the artist?"

"I should say so. He is my worst rival."

"Well his wife has run off with a freak out of a dime museum."

"She has? That's all her husband's doings. That's one of Smith's ways of getting himself advertised.

TOO SENSITIVE.

Mistress—It seems you haven't got sense enough to know how long to let the eggs stay in the water. Did they never have any soft-boiled eggs for breakfast where you served before you came here?

New servant—No, indeed. The lady where I served before I came here was so kind-hearted that she never allowed me to boil an egg.

MEXICAN WAYS.

A People Who Do Not Eagerly Pursue the Almighty Dollar.

The other day I encountered a village "costumore," or usage, which surprised me into a gentle fit of wrath. Having a desire for a good beefsteak for supper, I sent to a neighboring provision store, where they declined to cut the meat because we were not regular customers. Then the servant tried the place where we were regular customers, and there it was said that the man who cut the meat had gone home. Then the question was asked, "Why don't you buy your meat in the morning?"

If you go once to a shop where you do not regularly trade, the haughty character of your regular shopkeeper asserts itself; your regular baker will refuse to sell you bread because he has seen you buying of a rival baker. Mexicans from the city say that this is the provoking custom in all the small towns. It illustrates the national characteristic of not caring to bargain, deal, or negotiate with a person if he is not agreeable. Probably no nation is more governed in trivial matters by its likes and dislikes than is this one. The pursuit of the almighty dollar is not a maddening, nerve-destroying affair here. The average Mexican cannot understand why a man should wrinkle his brows and worry because he does not have a dollar or two ahead. Have you sufficient for to-day? That is enough; be happy and of tranquil heart. If you haven't a cent to-day, go and eat with your relatives or your compadre.

What is a cold in the head? Medical authorities say it is due to uneven clothing of the body, rapid clothing when in perspiration, &c. The important point is, that a cold in the head is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose, which when unchecked, is certain to produce a catarrhal condition—for catarrh is essentially a "cold" which nature is no longer able to "resolve" or throw off. Ely's Cream Balm has produced its superiority, and sufferers should resort to it before that common ailment becomes seated and ends in obstinate catarrh.

THE FIRST BLACK FROST.

How cold the sky! The time has come,
That brings our flowers death;
A blackened mass, now stricken dumb
Touched by a frozen breath.

Dumb did I say? Oh, yes 'tis so;
Did not their fragrance rise—
In speaking language that we know,
Read by their starry eyes?

And chill the air, one summer more
Of life is passed away;
One more black frost, so cold and hoar
On leaf, and flower, and spray.

To feel the first black frost on me,
From out a happy sky;
Oh dearest hopes on life's green tree
In one dark hour to die.

The spring will be renewed, but life
To me, will never be the same;
Though filled quite full of blessings rife,
Its sweetness is but just a name.

Oh blackened earth; Oh blasted hopes,
Why to us mortals given
But to wean us here? They are safety ropes,
On our struggling way to Heaven.

RED TAPE.

The Real and the Figurative Article Somewhat Mixed.

A notion which prevails in some portions of the army that every one at the various department headquarters uses red tape is erroneous, says the San Antonio (Tex.) Express as will be seen by the following correspondence. It appears that the chief engineer of the department had mounted and presented to the Adjutant General a beautiful map of the department. The map was complete, except in one particular—there was nothing by which to hang it. To remedy the defect the Adjutant General sent to each of the chiefs of the other staff departments the following circular letter:

"The chief of any staff department at headquarters will greatly oblige by sending me a small piece of red tape. I have none in my office."

A reply to this letter was received from only one of the officers, for the rest of them do not know what red tape is. This reply, from the Chief Commissary, was as follows:

"The chief of this department declines to assist in any manner in the use of red tape. If the Adjutant General has run out of red tape it is with great satisfaction the news is received."

To this insinuation the Adjutant General replied:

"The Adjutant General, in a service of more than thirty years, has this day, July 12, 1889, for the first time found necessity for using red tape—to make a handle to hang a map presented to him by the chief engineer officer."

The Chief Commissary was not satisfied with this reply, and answered: "The explanation is not satisfactory. The Chief Commissary of Subsistence, who has served as long as the Adjutant General, and was at one time his senior in rank, sees no necessity to hang a map presented by the chief engineer officer. If the Adjutant General wanted the red tape to hang the Chief Engineer it would have been furnished with pleasure."

The correspondence terminated with this indorsement by the Adjutant General:

"File these papers. The Chief Commissary of Subsistence admits there is red tape in his office."

It was once supposed that scrofula could not be eradicated from the system; but the marvelous results produced by by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla disprove this theory. The reason is, this medicine is the most powerful blood-purifier ever discovered.

SOME FEW FACTS

About Riverview Park Addition

to which we respectfully call the attention of all who want a home. Also these same facts are of immediate and urgent interest to any one who desires to make a small investment for sure profit.

The map of our addition is on record at the proper office in court house. We also have duplicate map at 223 South Main St., and shall have a little later a copy at office of D. Conger, Esq., Mr. Conger having kindly consented to give his attention to the interests of "Riverview Park."

We have associated with us our friend and brother-in-law, Mr. Chas F. Elliot, minister of All Souls church, who has kindly considered our proposition to him and will be pleased to give any information desired, show plan, and the property, and he is fully authorized to act for us in all particulars in regard to sales, contracts, etc., pertaining to our Riverview Park Addition.

To parties who will build a home within a year from this date, we make special offer of ten lots at not over half their value to us or any other man to hold. Lots 17, 18, 23, 30, 32, we will sell to people who will build as above at $100 each, half cash down, balance April, 1890, without interest, reserving the right to ourselves to refund the money provided purchaser does not build a home on such lot previous to December, 1, 1890.

Lots 20, 22, 29, 31, 33, we offer at $150, each on precisely same terms we do the five lots in previous paragraph. The offer on these ten lots as above set forth, holds open till Dec. 1, 1889, only and will most positively be withdrawn Dec. 2d. The lots are cheaper than any lots in city of Janesville at double the price named above. There are but ten of them. First come, first served.

The lots in the whole "Park" are numbered plainly on the board stakes, so that any person looking can see exactly the lot carrying a certain price.

We have fifteen other lots all fronting on the Park, four rod street between lots and Park, and in rear of every lot a 20-foot alley, among them several corner lots, which we offer at $200 each on the easiest terms you ever heard of, i. e., 15 per cent cash at date of contract, and 2½ per cent each month thereafter for thirty-four months without interest, at which time on receipt of last payment we will take up contract and give a full warranty deed with complete abstract of title to that date.

Let us illustrate the above proposition; The purchaser selects one of these beautiful lots; pays 15 per cent, i. e., $30 cash down, takes a contract and each month after for thirty-four months, pays his payment of two and one-half per cent or $5 without interest, and on the payment of last or 34th monthly payment gets his deed.

Should a purchaser so desire after paying his 14th monthly payment, at which time the lot will be exactly half paid for, we will then give deed and divide the balance into three yearly payments of $33.34, but in this case deferred payments to bear interest at rate of five per cent per annum.

We have seven elegant lots at head of Clark street fronting on said Clark street, at $250, $300 and $350 each, on precisely same terms as we offer on the fifteen two-hundred dollar lots. We assert, without any fear of contradiction, that not only these seven lots but all of the previous mentioned twenty-five lots, are at lower prices and on better terms than can be duplicated in this city.

Don't you forget to remember that we agree to grade the streets in front of all these lots; that we agree to put a fine sidewalk, four feet wide, either plank or gravel, around the beautiful park on which the fifteen lots at $200, front, and that in front of the seven last-named lots we are now laying a fine plank walk extending down Clark street, to where it intersects South Main street. We are in the deal to make friends, and are not very particular about making a fortune out of Riverside Park.

We mean business to such an extent that where a purchaser buys a lot for cash, we will put him up a home to suit him and he can pay us in monthly installments of from $10 to $20 (according to cost of house) until the property is paid for, thus enabling any man who can pay for a lot to get a home of his own at as little money monthly as he would pay rent for an inferior place.

The streets and avenues through this property we shall grade the first thing after spring opens, and this agreement on our part is a part of the agreement between us and all purchasers. The sidewalk around the park shall be completed before May 1, 1890. While all this work will be of great benefit to purchasers of our lots we fully appreciate that it is money in our pocket to do it in best possible manner.

Lot 16 containing nearly (⅞) seven-eighths of an acre our price for it is $500 on same easy payments as on the others. If any man can show us as desirable a lot as this at the price anywhere we will credit $100 on price if he buys this lot. It is simply beautiful and worthy of having a $4,000 villa built thereon. Go up and look at this lot and the others.

Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 on South Main street are certainly worth 25 per cent to-day to buy as a speculation, over our price, and remember these lots are on same peculiar easy terms as the others, 34 months' time without interest; these lots are 4 rods by 8 rods, water main in front remember. We have heard of $1,000 cash offered for lot of same size or smaller less than two blocks nearer the P. O. than these lay, our price is $500 for No. 1, $450 each for 2 and three, $400 each for 4 and 5. Thus $60 cash and $10 per month for 34 months will buy as good a Main street lot as you can find anywhere.

Mr. Carrington was to-day called pet names for offering these Main street lots at prices named leastwise the man said we were fools, and as we felt he had tolerable fair grounds for the remark, we did not discuss the matter.

Seriously we do not think any man who sees these lots and gives a fair and candid opinion, will differ from us in the judgment that these lots are a bonanza at the price.

We desire to reiterate and emphasize one point; these prices and terms are good for the month of November only. We are simply naming such prices and terms as these, to get our property before the public, and should our offers result in sale of ten lots within a week, we reserve the right to then withdraw the remaining lots and to advance the price; but unless ten lots are sold before, we shall hold our offer open till December 1st, inclusive.

To sum up! Here are five lots at $100 each, and five more at $150 each. But to avail yourself of these values, you must build within a year a home, or we have the right to refund you all your money and take the lots. This means simply that these ten lots are not for sale to speculate on.

The 15 lots at $200 on our own particular terms are not limited. You can buy for speculation if you choose and we firmly believe you can make $100 each on these lots before your 14th payment falls due i. e. double your money when lot is half paid for.

The seven lots at top of the hill, Clark St., we don't think will be taken up by speculators, for this reason, we think that the lucky buyers of these lots will be so pleased with them that before the 34 months pass every one of them will build on his lot a beautiful home.

The main street lots speak for themselves, speak louder and sing sweeter than we can, nuff ced.

Yours very truly,
GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON,
Managers of Riverview Park.
